

Communication by the Casino group

Paris, 27 November 2023

Following rumors in the press, the Casino group confirms that it has received preliminary expressions of interest for the acquisition of hypermarket and supermarket stores. These expressions of interest will be analyzed by the group and the consortium (EP Equity Investment III s.à.r.I, Fimalac and Trinity Investments Designated Activity Company) in the coming weeks, it being provided that any disposal shall be subject to the prior approval of the consortium in accordance with the lock-up agreement dated 5 October 2023. The Casino group will keep the market informed of any significant developments.
